So the amendment to the amendment was rejected.

The question then recurred and was put, upon the amendment—and

Resolved in the affirmative.

The doorkeeper having returned reported that in obedience to order he had notified the absent members that their attendance in the house was required.

The speaker announced that the hour had arrived for taking up the order of the day.

Mr. Causin moved to suspend the order of the day for the purpose of resuming the consideration of the resolution submitted by him this morning in relation to an increase of the salary of the present Governor;

Resolved in the affirmative.

On motion of Mr. Causin, said resolution was amended by adding at the end thereof the following, "and that he be required to reside at the seat of government;"

The question was then put, will the house assent to the resolution as amended;

Resolved in the affirmative.

On motion of Mr. Williams, the yeas and nays were ordered and appeared as follows:—
